got a face?

don’t touch it.

Influenza often spreads when someone touches a contaminated object and then touches his or her eyes, nose, or mouth.

For more information, visit http://medweb.mit.edu